

Maisy Grace is a musical force to be reckoned with, bringing a set that combines powerful original songs with new twists on covers you and your guests will be familiar with. Comfortable playing guitar, bass or piano, she can perform solo or as a duo bringing all of the kit needed to wow your stage, no matter what the event or time of day. She will sound ideal to backdrop a sunny afternoon, or to usher in a summer evening.

With the last year bringing Maisy exposure at a variety of festivals including Boardmasters, Leopallooza, Rock Oyster and Tunes in the Dunes, along with multiple features and interviews on BBC radio, this is a great time to get one of Cornwall's rising stars on board.

Maisy's latest releases, in collaboration with Kouncilhouse can be seen on her Spotify, with a selection of live performances and covers available on her YouTube channel.
